

HedgeOp Compliance Hosts "Excellence in Compliance"
Seminar Series
Established, Boutique Hedge Fund Service Provider Offers Year-Long
Educational Seminar Series

New York, NY – January 16, 2007 - HedgeOp Compliance, LLC, a leading provider of specialized compliance related products and consulting services to the hedge fund community, announced today that it will offer a new complementary educational seminar series during 2007 for hedge fund professionals.

"Navigating today's ever-changing and complex regulatory environment is a difficult task," said Bill Mulligan, CEO of HedgeOp Compliance. "Our seminars will introduce hedge fund managers to powerful technologies that streamline and simplify their compliance infrastructure while at the same time educating them on best practices and important compliance-related topics."

The series will kick off on Wednesday February 7th, at the New York offices of HedgeOp Compliance. The first seminar will address the topic of "Staying Prepared for an SEC Audit." Additional seminars are scheduled for March 7th, April 4th and May 2nd. The March 7th seminar tackles the topic of "Managing Fund-Level Compliance." At this seminar, attendees will learn the particulars of fund-level compliance and how ComplianceTrak, HedgeOp's web-based software application, can assist them in managing fund and investor-level compliance issues. The focus of the April 4th seminar will be identifying conflicts of interest that may arise in the hedge fund environment and how ComplianceTrak can assist hedge fund managers in managing those conflicts. The May 2nd seminar is designed for fund of hedge funds and institutional investors and will explore the importance of implementing a due diligence infrastructure for following and evaluating potential underlying hedge fund managers. HedgeOp plans to announce additional seminars that will take place during the remainder of 2007 at <http://hedgeop.com/general/seminar.asp>. The seminars are free for hedge fund professionals, however, space is limited so participants are encouraged to register early. In addition, hedge fund professionals outside of the New York area may participate through WebEx.
